

drive

release date: 10/30/07
album number: X041119
UPC: 859700411216

Written, arranged,
performed, produced,
engineered, and mixed
by david mansfield

Recorded between March 2006 and May 2007 at the Beauty Shop,
Randolph, Massachusetts

Mastered by David Mansfield at Hey Now
Records, Boston, Massachusetts

Creative advisor: Andrew Alton

Guest Appearance: The Andrew Alton Wrecking Crew on "You Are Here" (courtesy of Sway Records)

For more information please go to:
myspace.com/mansfieldspace or heynewrecords.com

Hey now records is proud to present

david mansfield / drive

Drive is the debut album from Boston singer-songwriter David Mansfield. A concept album in every sense of the term, drive is an album about hope, dreams, fear, beauty, and the journey it takes to find the essence of self.

Recorded in a small suburb of Boston, drive started out as a handed-down story that moved David so deeply he decided pick up a pen and a pad and write some music. Following in the steps of his favorite artists – the Beatles, Pete Townshend, and Pink Floyd to name a few – David came to the realization that this wonderful, bittersweet tale would best be retold in songs that truly turn the page with each changing melody and verse. The result? Drive.

David will be supporting the release of drive by performing throughout New England for the remainder of 2007 and spring of 2008 with plans to extend into the midwest and west coast by summer 2008.

Drive – along with its' accompanying single "drive/second hand news" – has been submitted to over 300 college/indie/internet radio stations across the United States for rotation addition and will shortly be added to XM Radio as a featured artist on the Verge, channel 52.

Drive (for a short time) is exclusively being made available on iTunes (U.S., Canada, UK, Australia, and Japan), Rhapsody, Napster, and Amazon MP3.

For more information on David Mansfield, drive, or Hey Now Records please contact Richard Taylor at Hey Now Records (richardtaylor@heynewrecords.com). Please also use this contact for promotional or interview requests. You can also find David Mansfield on his Myspace page at myspace.com/mansfieldspace.